Dear Andy,

I have extras of the Jesse Curry book and of Four Days. How much are they worth?

Also, what worth would you place on audiotapes of the hearings of the House assassins committee. I've just given them to Hood College.

Shortly after I spoke to you about the crappy Madeleine Brown book, which I got from you, I got a threatening call about it.

It was on Livingstone's phone. I have a Caller ID

Aside from you I spoke to only one other person about it.

If you told him of my interest, I don't mind. But I'd like to know. From my experience with him Harry is a strange man.

Who does strange things.

And has even stranger beliefs.

Best,

Harold
